

Biography

Over the past 25 years, award winning magician and illusionist, Joe Holiday, has continued to grab the attention of live audiences across the globe.

On screen, Joe's original and engaging style landed him on international television as a featured guest star in Harary's multi-million dollar "Mega Magic Illusion Show" thrilling over a million viewers throughout Asia.

On stage, Joe Holiday's unique brand of comedy, intrigue, and excitement has crossed cultural and language barriers, solidifying him as a professional entertainer. He has been a featured performer in countless shows throughout Singapore, China, Seoul, South Korea, up and down the entire east and west coasts of America, including the casinos of both Las Vegas, Nevada and along the boardwalk in his hometown, Atlantic City, New Jersey. As a headliner for major cruise lines, Joe's ability to connect with the audience kept them coming back night after night. His professional style has made him a choice entertainer at major events for such mega companies as Google International, Honda Motor Corporation, and KPMG.

In 2013 and 2014, Joe Holiday had the honored privilege of performing his full magic and illusion show for U.S. troops stationed overseas, along with many other A-list celebrities. Since that time, Joe Holiday has received the Atlantic City Weekly Nightlife Award for "Best Local Comedian (2015)" and the TripAdvisor Award of Excellence for his self-produced show, "Magic & Mayhem". The show's premiere enjoyed a successful, two-year run with over 500 performances, at the famed Comedy Stop in the Tropicana Hotel & Casino in Atlantic City Hailed as "Atlantic City's Favorite Magician" by the Press of Atlantic City.

Joe Holiday currently spends his time in South Jersey with his wife Sharon and their two daughters Angelina and Marguerite, and as the resident magician for world class resorts including Crystal Springs Resort, Wyndham Resorts, and Marriott Vacation Clubs.
